Why would I see a Counselor?

The Counseling Office is a place to go to talk to someone. You may see a counselor if:

- You are having problems with friends
- You are struggling with your classes
- You are having problems at home/family
- You are thinking of hurting yourself
- Someone is hurting you
- Bring Mr. LaValley FOOD :)

Process for meeting with a Counselor

If you need to speak with a counselor:

1. You need a pass from your teacher to the counseling office.
2. Come into the counseling office and ask Mrs. Papsdorf (secretary) if your counselor is available.
3. If counselor is not available, fill out a pink form and a counselor will call you down to the office when they are available.

*If you need to see a counselor immediately, please let Mrs. Papsdorf know and she will find an available counselor.
