Recap of Recent Events

- Valentine's Shop:
 - Made just under $1,200
 - Candy portion of the sale was very successful. Suggestion to possibly hold a candy sale once per month.
 - Still have a lot of stock leftover to sell for the Santa Shop in December.
 - Donated leftover items to the OMS office (i.e. leggings, cord management tubes, etc)
- Food Drive:
 - Congratulations students! They exceeded their goal of 400 cans donated and collected 451 cans!
 - 1st place Mrs. Giroux (63) PRIZE - Bagel Bombs from Evergreens on 3/17
 - 2nd place Mrs. Busha (61) PRIZE - Pizza from Dominoes on 3/17

Upcoming Events

- Staff Appreciation Week - April 25-29
 - Teachers have requested to convert an upstairs copier room into a lunch room. The majority of the classrooms do not have windows, but this copy room does. They have started an Amazon wish list of items to make a comfortable, relaxing space to enjoy a view of the outside while having lunch.
 - Survey the teachers what they would like/prefer for snacks and lunches.
- Mother's Day Sale May 5-6 at lunch
- Silent Auction Targeting May 20:
 - Lauren has sent hundreds of letters/emails to request donation of auction items.
 - Several companies/golf courses/apparel companies, etc have already responded and are offering to donate amazing gifts and experiences.
 - We will advertise donation opportunities in the OMS newsletter for families and the community.
- May 20 - 8th Grade Farewell
 - Dacia will ask Christie Watson the status of the baby picture video
 - Survey the students to determine their preference for a dance or an activity day/night.
 - Donations for food (food truck, catering, etc.), decorations, activities, DJ, etc.
- June 3 - 8th Grade trip to Cedar Point
